Miss Tupper, the physical director of the Y. W. C. A., has made a splendid record so far, as the success of the department she presides over gives testimony. Miss Tupper has had charge of the lunch-room during the illness of Miss Ericson, in addition to her other duties.

The masquerade ball, the first given on Maui in many years, was a great success. It was given at the town hall in Wailuku the evening before Thanksgiving. The costumes were most striking. The proceeds of the dance were for the benefit of the St. Anthony's Girls' School.

Probably the largest shipment of Dolls' Buggies, Tricycles, Velocipes,

There were many delightful home Thanksgiving affairs this year on Maui. One of the pleasantest was that of Clarence G. White and wife of Haiku, who entertained in their hospitable way the friends they traveled with on the last return trip from the Coast. "The Lulline crowd" consisted of their own family, Rev. and Mrs.
A. Craig Bowdish, Miss Marie Holt,
Mr. James Whitten, Miss Gladys Vanderhoof was also included in the dinner party. The decorations were most attractive, and all the guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

PLAN TO SAVE CITY
$30,000 A YEAR

Honolulu, city and county, is to be saved $30,000 a year, if the new budget, recently adopted by the supervisors-elect, becomes of force after the first of the year. As announced in The Star-Bulletin, the saving will be effected in a large measure by topping off the heads of several office holders, and by salary cutting.

Such salaries as are paid out by the city, however, will be paid to good Democrats, if the resolution adopted by the county committee Saturday night is given full weight by the authorities. The resolution, introduced by Soapbox Barron, follows:

"Be it resolved by the Democratic county committee of the City and County of Honolulu, that we instruct the mayor, the board of supervisors, the treasurer, the county sheriff and all other officers having the power to appoint subordinates, who were elected on the Democratic ticket, that in order to comply with the wishes of the people, who elected them to offices, that the Democratic party shall manage the city and county government, and to carry out their respective pledges at the Democratic convention, they shall place in every position only Democrats, and in the manner provided by the rules of the Democratic party."

Joela Kiakahi presented resolutions to the effect that all police officers, as well as others, who desire reappointment, or appointment, must send in their applications to the county committee by next Saturday, if possible.
This resolution caused a long discussion, but it was finally passed, after amendment to include "all others."

It was stated last evening that Sheriff Jarrett will not force his officers to abide by this rule and that he will act independently of the county committee if they attempt to enforce it.

A bonded investment in a strong corporation, managed by practical oil operators, controlling and owning thousands of acres of oil land in California and Mexico, the two greatest and most profitable oil fields in the world, already producing and marketing thousands of barrels of oil every month.

THE SEABOARD OIL & TRANSIT COMPANY today represents the fruits of years of work, a consolidation of interests which in their combined state, represents the basis of one of the greatest oil corporations ever organized.

Bonds for the Small Investor

Bonds of $100.00 face value are exactly the same strength and safety as the $1000.00 issue, as it affords an opportunity for an investment on the part of non-wealthy people, who heretofore could not avail themselves of the investing privileges of the millionaire.

Purchase these bonds to the limit of your ability, but at least buy one "baby" bond today.
